

An organized office leads to increased productivity and a happier workplace. What is yours like?

Solution: "I love to sort, file, and organize", is what you will hear when you hire individuals through TRC!

You may be too busy to notice your "cobwebs" or those "get-to-it-later" jobs. What are yours?

Solution: TRC will mop, sweep, move, rearrange, stock, replace, and redo - all with a smile on our face!

Let The Resource Center help you find time for the tasks that seem to get left behind.

Finding time to come up with new ideas can be a challenge. It even takes time to refresh previously successful ideas. What are your ideas?

Solution: Embrace new ideas, while giving people new work skills and life experiences.

Occasional tasks that take employees away from regular duties can feel like doing inventory in a wine cellar. Necessary, but who wants to do it?

Solution: We do! Inventory assignments can help develop both organizational and mathematical skills.

Business Partners with The Resource Center find that hiring qualified workers of all abilities just makes good business sense!

The Resource Center supports every aspect of employment from beginning to end. We provide the services while you provide the opportunities.

TRC's Employment Services are designed to offer experiences in:

- ✓ Skills Assessment
- ✓ Unpaid Work Experiences
- ✓ Full- and Part-time Employment

Benefits of employing persons with disabilities:

- ✓ Job Coaching
- ✓ Tax Credits
- ✓ Work Try-out Wage Reimbursement
- ✓ Less Turnover

Our goal is to assist individuals in knowing the sense of pride, satisfaction and self-worth that comes from earning real wages for meaningful work.

Comments from the Community

"Our relationship is important with The Resource Center because it gives us an opportunity to provide meaningful work to people with disabilities. Additionally, they are providing wonderful service for us."

— Jim Maione | Southern Tier Brewery

"It is a pleasure for the management team and staff at the Chautauqua Harbor Hotel to partner with TRC's supported employment program. Our team members from TRC have proven to be hard working and dedicated."

— Donner VonRitter | Chautauqua Harbor Hotel

"I was very impressed with the individuals I met in the community pre-voc program. They accustomed well to the Community Helping Hands environment and they were able to learn new skills fast."
